

O God, Whose Name Is Holy

Isaiah 57:15; Hebrews 4:16; Psalm 123; Revelation 3:14

Gordon A. Dickson

Gustav Holst

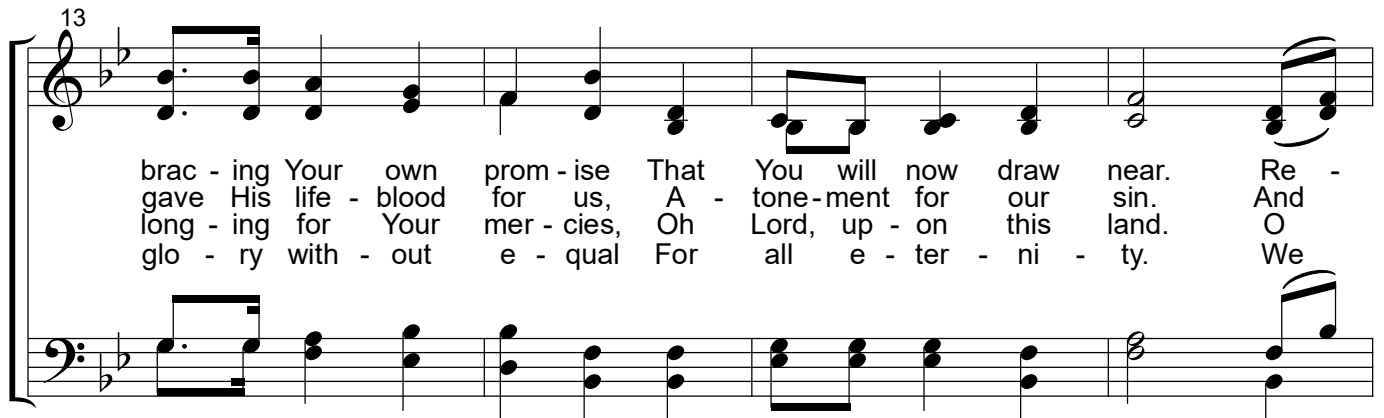

1. O God, Whose name is ho - ly, We hon - or You to - day. E -
2. O God, Whose ways are gra - cious, We hum - bly lift our face For
3. O God, Who dwells in Heav - en, To You we lift our eyes, To
4. O God, the true and faith - ful, Our wit - ness from a - bove. Our ter - ni - ty Your dwell - ing, Ma - jes - tic all Your ways. For mer - cies oh so pre - cious Now from Your throne of grace. Your You Who reigns for - ev - er En - throned up - on the skies. As God Who, al - ways a - ble, As - sures us with His love. We

5

9
we, con - trite and low - ly, Dwell - ing here in god - ly fear, Em - gift of hum - ble Je - sus, Might - y Sav - ior for all men Who eyes of hum - ble ser - vants Look to their Mas - ter's hand, We are gath - er as Your peo - ple By Je - sus' blood made free. Your

O God, Whose Name Is Holy - 2

13

brac - ing Your own prom - ise That You will now draw near. Re - gave His life - blood for us, A - tone - ment for our sin. And long - ing for Your mer - cies, Oh Lord, up - on this land. O glo - ry with - out e - qual For all e - ter - ni - ty. We vive our hum - bled spir - its And quick - en con - trite hearts With ris - ing, death to con - quer, Ex - alt - ed now on high, Will show us lov - ing - kind - ness; Our en - e - mies we fear. With wor - ship God the Fa - ther And glo - ri - fy His Son. The mer - cies with - out lim - its, With grace that You im - part.

17

21

cause our souls to pros - per Through Him, We hum - bly cry.
scorn they tru - ly hate us. O Sav - iour, now draw near.
Spir - it now we hon - or. We praise the Three in One.